1. Building Official

Mayor Murphy stated that Mr. David Greenbaum who is an applicant of our Building Official who is currently employed at Longboat Key. He is highly recommended that by the City Manager of Longboat Key. Commissioner Yetter stated that she had met him on Monday and she was very impressed. He has a strong authoritative leadership style and he should do well in this position. He has project manager experience and is taking the Flood Plain Management test tomorrow.

Mayor Murphy stated that they are going through a management change and bringing several people from Sarasota County. He has a clean background check and everything turned out great. He has known Mr. Bullock and trusts him very well.

Motion: To approve hiring Mr. David Greenbaum as the Building Official for the City of Anna Maria.

Action: Motion by Commissioner Carter, seconded by Commissioner Yetter.

On roll call vote, the motion passed unanimously.

Mayor Murphy stated that he will be making some organizational changes to the Building and Code Enforcement Department now that we have a new Building Official who is an employee.

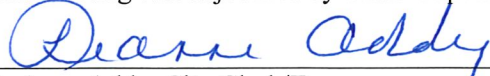

Press Comment

Joe Hendricks wanted to know if you will be structuring similar to Bradenton Beach by having a person spend 60% of time working on the Community Rating System?

Mayor Murphy stated that we are reorganizing. He also stated that in the Islander, it was reported inaccurate by stating that we already lost our FEMA rating. He would like some assistance with the information that was in the Islander headline. He was very displeased with that article.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned by Chair Copeland at 11:12 a.m.

LeAnne Addy, City Clerk/Treasurer
